

Notice Concerning 4C Entity, LLC Provisional Approval of DTCP-Protected Outputs

Pursuant to Section 1.5 of the CPPM Compliance Rules for DVD-Audio and Section 1.4 of the CPRM Compliance Rules, Compliance Rules for Recording and Playback of Audio Content, this is to notify signers of the 4C CPPM/CPRM License Agreement that 4C Entity, LLC (“4C”) has provisionally approved the use of digital outputs using Digital Transmission Content Protection technology pursuant to the DTLA Compliance Rules Exhibit B-2, Part 2 and the DTLA Specification applicable to Type 2 DVD Audio content (licensed by the Digital Transmission License Administrator, LLC, www.dtcp.com) as Authorized Secure Digital Outputs under the referenced Compliance Rules. This provisional approval shall continue until notice is provided that it has either become final or has otherwise been modified or terminated. Licensees should take note that the DTLA Compliance Rules applicable to audio content have three parts, and the 4C notice permits the use of DTCP pursuant only to Part 2 of the DTLA audio compliance rules.
